

PLAY ON COLLEGE GRIDIRONS.

THE PRINCETON SCORING HABIT AGAIN IN EVIDENCE.

Tigers Defeat Orange, A. C. 20 to 0. Princeton Wins From Gettysburg by Score of 22 to 0. Fine Work of the Yale Alumni Against College Team.

Only two of the "Big Four" played yesterday. The Princeton habit of making numerous touchdowns against opponents was still in evidence. The Tigers beat the Orange A. C. team 20 to 0. Last Saturday Lafayette, who is to meet "Old Nassau" next Saturday, beat the Orange team 17 to 0. The University of Pennsylvania eleven downed Gettysburg yesterday 22 to 0.

PRINCETON, Oct. 23.—Next Saturday Princeton will line up against Lafayette. Three days ago the players from Easton rolled up 17 points against the Orange A. C. and at the same time prevented their opponents from scoring. To-day the Tigers beat the same aggregation of Orange kickers 20 to 0. Those who are fond of comparing scores pretend to see something of favorable significance in the contest this afternoon, but not so the Princeton coaches. They brand it as one of the worst exhibitions their team has given yet and do not hesitate to say that the Tigers will have to put up a very much stiffer argument on Saturday if they are to meet Lafayette at all impressively.

Princeton's play during the first half was wretched. Two touchdowns were scored, but both resulted more from the scrum than from any good work on the part of the Tigers. "Old Nassau" downed almost constantly. Once just after half past one the Princeton players, in the leather slipped from his arm, pulled covered it for Orange behind the visitors' goal posts. The fourth quarter was being dropped out so promptly late in the game that Princeton came almost invariably as the result of a last-minute effort. Princeton's defense was not without a helper attending him, so that not infrequently he was nailed for a loss when he was running. Princeton's defense was not without a helper attending him, so that not infrequently he was nailed for a loss when he was running.

In addition to the other facts, Princeton's defense was not without a helper attending him, so that not infrequently he was nailed for a loss when he was running. Princeton's defense was not without a helper attending him, so that not infrequently he was nailed for a loss when he was running.

Right Guard Miller, the old Columbia player, said after the game that Princeton's defense was not without a helper attending him, so that not infrequently he was nailed for a loss when he was running.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

MORE A. U. TROUBLES.

New England Association Disagrees on Question of Delegates.

NEW ENGLAND, Oct. 23.—The Board of Managers of the New England Association of the A. U. met at the Parker House last night to elect a new Secretary-Treasurer, and the delegates were hardly prepared for the bombshell that dropped when a letter was read from Secretary E. E. Sullivan of the A. U. to the effect that the New England body was violating the constitution by only electing three delegates to the national convention, which will be held in New York shortly, when at least four members are entitled to sit on the executive committee. Mr. Sullivan scored the New England Association unreservedly for ignorance displayed in the matter of intention to keep the number limited and shut out certain individuals that might be unsatisfactory to those at the last meeting of the New England Association.

At the last meeting the names of four men W. L. Dunbar, J. W. Wilson, E. E. Sullivan and E. E. Babb, were voted on and the first three were chosen. Mr. Babb held out for his right as a delegate according to the constitution and it was his order that two more delegates should be elected. This was not in line with the sentiment of President Wilson, who named three others, but not Mr. Babb. The delegates were asked to support the delegates named by Mr. Babb, but they refused. The delegates named by Mr. Babb were elected.

In the absence of an intercollegiate game at Columbia yesterday, the rivalry and scrum of the two teams was not so hot. The Yale team played a very good game, but the Princeton team was not so good. The Princeton team was not so good as the Yale team.

Metropolitan Association Will Consider Changes in A. U. Rules. James E. Sullivan, President of the Metropolitan Association of the A. U., has called a general meeting of the association for next Monday night. The meeting is called at the request of the "insurgents," who desire to submit certain changes in the rules to the association.

Broad Jumper O'Connor Sails for Home. Peter O'Connor, the holder of the world's record for the running broad jump, sailed for his home in Ireland yesterday. He had been in the United States for some time, but he is now returning home.

Inter-Class Games at Lafayette College. CLASSTON, Oct. 23.—There was a large crowd on March field this afternoon to witness the annual inter-class field and track meet of Lafayette College. In a number of instances there was sharp competition. The sophomore class carried off the honors, having won 62½ per cent of the events. The football game between the sophomores and the freshmen resulted in a 20 to 0 victory for the sophomores.

Other Games. At Morrisstown-Morrisstown School, 35, Newark Academy, 5. At Potomac-Hill School, 21; University of Pennsylvania Freshmen, 10; University of Pennsylvania Sophomores, 10; University of Pennsylvania Juniors, 10; University of Pennsylvania Seniors, 10.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

PRINCETON. Positions. Orange A. C. Left end, Miller; Left guard, Miller; Left tackle, Miller; Center, Miller; Right tackle, Miller; Right guard, Miller; Right end, Miller.

HERNANDO'S TRACK RECORD.

THREE-YEAR-OLD WINS HANDICAP AT MORRIS PARK.

Upsets a Hot Favorite in McMeekin and Runs Mile and a Half in 2:34 1-4. Prophetic Takes the Casino Stakes for Two-Year-Olds. Two Favorites Win.

The warm weather brought out a crowd of 3,000 enthusiasts to the Morris Park racetrack yesterday, and the things that happened in the betting ring were things that would have been considered impossible only a few days ago. The two favorites were victorious, the other winners were all well backed, in two instances odds being pounded down in great shape. One track record was broken, and a third was covered a mile and a half in the last race in 2:34 1-4, the best previous figure being 2:37 1-4, made by Belgrade with ninety-nine pounds in October of last year.

The one stake race on the card was the Casino Stakes for two-year-olds, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course. With Femesco scratched, the talent went after Prophetic, recently of the Keene stable, but now the property of J. Grant Lyman, a local favorite. He proved a strong favorite at 11 to 10, with some good play on Lashen, 6 to 1, and Wild West, 7 to 1. Prophetic led all the way, Shaw simply keeping her straight, and she won by a length in clever fashion in 1:58 1-4, beating her nearest rival, Lashen, 2 1-2 lengths.

Hernando's victory and record-breaking performance came in a handicap for three-year-olds, a mile and a half, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The second race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

Through thirteen horses were scratched out of the second race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The third race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The fourth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The fifth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The sixth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The seventh race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The eighth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The ninth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The tenth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The eleventh race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The twelfth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The thirteenth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The fourteenth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The fifteenth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The sixteenth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The seventeenth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

HERNANDO'S TRACK RECORD.

THREE-YEAR-OLD WINS HANDICAP AT MORRIS PARK.

Upsets a Hot Favorite in McMeekin and Runs Mile and a Half in 2:34 1-4. Prophetic Takes the Casino Stakes for Two-Year-Olds. Two Favorites Win.

The warm weather brought out a crowd of 3,000 enthusiasts to the Morris Park racetrack yesterday, and the things that happened in the betting ring were things that would have been considered impossible only a few days ago. The two favorites were victorious, the other winners were all well backed, in two instances odds being pounded down in great shape. One track record was broken, and a third was covered a mile and a half in the last race in 2:34 1-4, the best previous figure being 2:37 1-4, made by Belgrade with ninety-nine pounds in October of last year.

The one stake race on the card was the Casino Stakes for two-year-olds, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course. With Femesco scratched, the talent went after Prophetic, recently of the Keene stable, but now the property of J. Grant Lyman, a local favorite. He proved a strong favorite at 11 to 10, with some good play on Lashen, 6 to 1, and Wild West, 7 to 1. Prophetic led all the way, Shaw simply keeping her straight, and she won by a length in clever fashion in 1:58 1-4, beating her nearest rival, Lashen, 2 1-2 lengths.

Hernando's victory and record-breaking performance came in a handicap for three-year-olds, a mile and a half, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The second race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

Through thirteen horses were scratched out of the second race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The third race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The fourth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The fifth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The sixth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The seventh race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The eighth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The ninth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The tenth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The eleventh race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The twelfth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The thirteenth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The fourteenth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The fifteenth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The sixteenth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

The seventeenth race, a half mile, with five furlongs on the Eclipse course, was won by J. E. Widener's Miss Melba, 13 to 1, who was generally backed. The tip was McMeekin, who the tipsters said could not lose unless he should break down. Accordingly, the crowd plunged on Femesco's son and he finished with a Knight of the Garter, 4 to 1, led for three-quarters of a mile. Then Lashen, 8 to 1, showed in front, only to be joined by Hernando, who was backed down at 10 to 1. Hernando was a heavy drive, in which Hernando won by a short head from Advance Guard, who was three parts of a length behind.

HERNANDO'S TRACK RECORD.

THREE-YEAR-OLD WINS HANDICAP AT MORRIS PARK.

Upsets a Hot Favorite in McMeekin and Runs Mile and a Half in 2:34 1-4. Prophetic Takes the Casino Stakes for Two-Year-Olds. Two Favorites Win.

The warm weather brought out a crowd of 3,000 enthusiasts to the Morris Park racetrack yesterday, and the things that happened in the betting ring were things that would have been considered impossible only a few days ago. The two favorites were victorious, the other winners were all well backed, in two instances odds being pounded down in great shape. One track record was broken, and a third was covered a mile and a half in the last race in 2:34 1-4, the best previous figure being 2:37 1-4, made by Bel